

Public Lectures

A total of 9 public lectures were undertaken in Khartoum State in collaboration with different entities (NGOs, legislative bodies, cultural centres, universities).

These were attended by a total of 391 participants representing different categories.

The topics of the lectures included issues of gender and constitutions, systems of rule, human rights and environmental rights (see News and Events for more details).

